Contents for ESQ, Volume 49, 2003

NOS. 1–3 (1st–3rd Quarters) Nos. 190–92 o.s.
SPECIAL ISSUE: REEXAMINING THE AMERICAN RENAISSANCE

ALBERT J. VON FRANK
INTRODUCTION | Reexamining the American Renaissance: Some Futures for the Past 1

BETSY ERKKILÄ
Revolution in the Renaissance 17

JEFFREY STEELE
Crises of Relationship: Developing Relational Models for the Study of the American Renaissance 33

JOHN CARLOS ROWE
Religious Transnationalism in the American Renaissance: Susan Warner's Wide, Wide World 45

SHARON M. HARRIS
Whose Renaissance? Women Writers in the Era of the American Renaissance 59

PHYLLIS COLE
The Literary Landscape of a Woman's Rights Periodical: The Una, 1853–1855 81

MAURICE S. LEE
The Old and the New: Double Consciousness and the Literature of Slavery 95

JULIE CARY NERAD
A Darker Woods: African American Writers in the American Renaissance 107

LARRY J. REYNOLDS
The Challenge of Cultural Relativity: The Case of Hawthorne 129

PENELOPE KELSEY
Natives, Nation, Narration: Reading Roanoke in the American Renaissance 149

DAVID M. BALL
Toward an Archaeology of American Modernism: Reconsidering Prestige and Popularity in the American Renaissance 161

RUSS CASTRONOVO
Death to the American Renaissance: History, Heidegger, Poe 179

ROBERT MILDER
"A Literature for the Times" 193

Contributors 209

NO. 4 (4th Quarter) No. 193 o.s.

ROBERT SATTELMEYER
"Shanties of Chapters and Essays": Rewriting Moby-Dick 213

GRETCHEN MURPHY
Symzonia, Typee, and the Dream of U.S. Global Isolation 249

GALE TEMPLE
"His Delirious Solace":
Consummation, Consumption, and Reform
in Hawthorne's Blithedale Romance 285

Contributors 322